“Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed.

What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is”

Speak up for the love of...

A day of climate action

12 noon, 17 June 2015
Central London

For the love of God's creation. For the love of our neighbours near and far. We all love someone or something affected by climate change.

Join us to tell the new government to protect all that we hold dear and tackle climate change.
