

Elisha replied “Let me inherit a double portion of your spirit.”

“When Elisha reached the house, there was the boy lying dead on his couch. He went in, shut the door on the two of them and prayed to the LORD. Then he got on the bed and lay on the boy, mouth to mouth, eyes to eyes, hands to hands. As he stretched himself out on him, the boy’s body grew warm. Elisha turned away and walked back and forth in the room and then got on the bed and stretched out on him once more. The boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.”

“I thought he would surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, wave his arm over the spot and cure me of my leprosy.”

“Now I know that there is no God in all the world except in Israel.”

“When the servant of the man of God got up and went out early the next morning, an army with horses and chariots had surrounded the city. “Oh, my lord! What shall we do?” the servant asked.

<sup>16</sup> “Don’t be afraid,” the prophet answered.

“Those who are with us are more than those who are with them.”

<sup>17</sup> And Elisha prayed, “O Lord, open his eyes so that he may see.” Then the LORD opened the servant’s eyes, and he looked and saw the hills full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.”

“A man came from (a town), bringing (Elisha) the man of God twenty loaves of barley bread baked from the first ripe corn, along with some heads of new corn. “Give it to the people to eat,” Elisha said. <sup>43</sup> “How can I set this before a hundred men?” his servant asked. But Elisha answered, “Give it to the people to eat. For this is what the LORD says: ‘They will eat and have some left over.’”

44 Then he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.”
