EU BRIEFING

ECONOMY

Pound bounces back from 30-year low

The Bank of England had to intervene to help the pound rally from a 30-year low following the referendum. The markets calmed after Mark Carney, the Bank governor, said he was prepared to inject up to £250 billion into the economy. Mr Carney said he would take "all necessary steps" after the FTSE 100 fell by more than 8 per cent. Euro-sceptic ministers said the rally was evidence that warnings of the effects of a Brexit were unfounded. Page 6

LABOUR

Corbyn rebels move to unseat leader

Jeremy Corbyn could face a leadership contest within days after two Labour MPs submitted a motion of no confidence and scores more called on him to resign. Leading party figures demanded Mr Corbyn "do the honourable thing" and quit after he was accused of failing to do enough to convince voters in Labour's heartlands to choose Remain. The motion was submitted by Dame Margaret Hodge and seconded by Ann Coffey. Page 12

SCOTLAND

Sturgeon eyes fresh bid to break up Britain

Nicola Sturgeon fired the starting gun on another Scottish independence referendum yesterday as she insisted a new vote on breaking up Britain was "highly likely". After England and Wales backed Brexit, the First Minister insisted that a second poll could now be held before the UK leaves Europe in late 2019. She added that it was "democratically unacceptable" for the Scots to be dragged out of the EU when the country had backed Remain. Page 14

BRUSSELS

EU leaders demand quick start to exit talks

Britain must begin exit talks "as soon as possible", European Union leaders said yesterday, as they fought to prevent a restoration of referendum

Samantha Cameron could barely mask her pain and sadness as her husband, David, announced he would stand down as Prime Minister following the Brexit vote, saying he could no longer 'captain the ship'

Luke 8.21

For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name, that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner man, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith....

Ephesians 3.14-19

....and that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled up to all the fullness of God.

Ephesians 3.14-19

"There are two sorts of shaking in my Word. The first is to shake what can be shaken to bring down strongholds, to shake those who believe they are strong to show that they are weak. But there is another sort of shaking - where the trees are shaken and from them pours forth fruit. I want to shake you to enable you to be fruitful..."

...This is not the shaking of people who believe they are strong but turn out to be weak. It is the shaking of people who know they are weak but, through the shaking, are fruitful. Let me shake you all - your lives with me, your ministries, your treasured occupations and positions. Be prepared to let me shake you. And as I shake you watch the fruit drop from your branches."

Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe, for our "God is a consuming fire."

Hebrews 12.28-29
