

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 1.14

The Word became flesh and tabernacled among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 1.14

"The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified."

John 12.23

"For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as ransom for many."

Mark 10.45

"Remember what I told you: 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also."

John 15.20

"Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, "Follow me!"

John 21.19

All who were sitting in the Sanhedrin looked intently at Stephen, and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Acts 7.15

17

We are not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face to prevent the Israelites from seeing the end of what was passing away.... But whenever anyone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate the Lord's glory, are being transformed into his image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

2 Corinthians 3.13, 16-18
