

Then a cloud appeared and enveloped them,
and a voice came from the cloud:

“This is my Son, whom I love.

Listen to him!”

Mark 9:7

“Everything is possible for him who believes.” (v22)

Why did Jesus need to pray?

Why did Jesus need the Holy Spirit?

Why couldn't the disciples drive out the evil spirit?

What about us?

The Word became flesh and lived for a little while among us.

John 1 v14

I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can only do whatever he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does.

John 5 v19

“Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen one in whom I delight; I will put my Spirit on him, and he will bring justice to the nations. He will not shout or cry out, or raise his voice in the streets. A bruised reed he will not break, and a smouldering wick he will not snuff out. In faithfulness he will bring forth justice; he will not falter or be discouraged till he establishes justice on earth. In his teaching the islands will put their hope.” This is what God the Lord says—the Creator of the heavens, who stretches them out, who spreads out the earth with all that springs from it, who gives breath to its people, and life to those who walk on it: “I, the Lord, have called you in righteousness; I will take hold of your hand. I will keep you and will make you to be a covenant for the people and a light for the Gentiles, to open eyes that are blind, to free captives from prison and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness. (Isaiah 42 v1-7)

The Spirit of the Lord is on me,
because he has anointed me
to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind,
to set the oppressed free,
to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.”

(Luke 4 v18-19)

When Jesus had called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority to drive out all demons and to cure diseases.

Luke 9 v1

The seventy-two returned with joy and said, “Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name.” He replied, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you.

Luke 10 v17-19

I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can only do whatever he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does.

And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms. (Ephesians 2 v6)

He raised Christ from the dead and seated him at his right hand. (Ephesians 1 v20)

I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people, and his incomparably great power for us who believe. (Ephesians 1 v18-19)
