HAS SCIENCE
BURIED GOD?

There is no more important debate than this – science versus religion. But it needs to begin again, with clear understanding of what science and religion actually are. Lennox has done this wonderfully.

An excoriating demolition of Dawkins's overreach from biology into religion.

Melanie Phillips, The Spectator

When he heard this, Jesus said, 'This illness will not end in death. No, it is for God's glory so that God's Son may be glorified through it.' Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed where he was two more days, and then he said to his disciples, 'Let us go back to Judea.'

John 11.4-8

So then he told them plainly, 'Lazarus is dead, and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.'

John 11.14-15

So then he told them plainly, 'Lazarus is dead, and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.'

John 11.14-15

'Father, I thank you that you have heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe that you sent me.'

John 11.41-41

Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?'

John 11.25-26
