

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

“As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for you, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When can I go and meet with God? My tears have been my food day and night, while men say to me all day long “Where is your God?””

“Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters” ... “Give ear and come to me” ...
“Seek the Lord while he may be found; call on him while he is near”.

For he (the Lord) satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.

On the last and greatest day of the feast (the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles), Jesus stood and said in a loud voice “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink.”

Legal righteousness, communal righteousness,
personal righteousness.

Happy are those whose greatest desire is to do what God requires.

“Be careful not to do your Acts of righteousness before men, to be seen by them”

“If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink”.

“He (God) has filled the hungry with good things but has sent the rich away empty”.

“Everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock ... but everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand.”

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled”.
