

Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

All have sinned

“We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed”

“We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings”

“the remembrance of them is grievous to us; the burden of them is intolerable”.

“A person who has had a bath needs only to wash his feet”

If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (1 John 1.9)

“You have put all my sins behind your back”
(Is. 38.17)

“I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions, for my own sake, and remembers your sins no more” (Is.43.25)

“I have swept away your offences like a cloud,
your sins like the morning mist.” (Is. 44.22)

“Who is a God like you, who pardon sin and forgives the transgression ... You do not stay angry for ever but delight to show mercy. You will again have compassion on us; you will tread our sins underfoot and hurl our iniquities into the depths of the sea.” (Micah 7.18-19)

As far as the east is from the west ... so far removed ... put behind your back ... blotted
out. ... remembered no more... swept away ...
trodden underfoot ... hurled into the sea.

“as we forgive those who sin against us.”

Jesus said “For if you forgive men when they sin against you, your Heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins”. (Matt. 6.14-15).

Jesus concluded “This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother from your heart.” (Matt. 18.35)

“He who cannot forgive others breaks the bridge over which he must pass himself”.
