

Becoming like Jesus...

This year we've been learning that to love God is our most important calling – anything we do for God has to come from that place. Jesus exemplified the love of his Father more than anyone who ever lived. So when I asked the Lord about the summer programme and what he wanted to do in the people of All Saints, I felt him say this – 'I want to show them my Son and help them to be like him.' So over the next three months we are going to look at who Jesus was – and then see how we can become more like him. Do walk with us.
