Becoming like Jesus...

This year we've been learning that to love God is our most important calling – anything we do for God has to come from that place. Jesus exemplified the love of his Father more than anyone who ever lived. So when I asked the Lord about the summer programme and what he wanted to do in the people of All Saints, I felt him say this – 'I want to show them my Son and help them to be like him.' So over the next three months we are going to look at who Jesus was – and then see how we can become more like him. Do walk with us.

life for others*

He is despised and rejected by men, a Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.....

But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement for our peace was upon Him, and by His stripes we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned, every one, to his own way; and the Lord has laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed and He was afflicted, yet He opened not His mouth; He was led as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, so He opened not His mouth.....

*For He was cut off from the land of the living;
for the transgressions of My people He was stricken...*

He shall see the labour of His soul, and be satisfied. By His knowledge My righteous Servant shall justify many for He shall bear their iniquities. Therefore I will divide Him a portion with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong, because He poured out His soul unto death, and He was numbered with the transgressors, and He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Isaiah 53.3, 5-8, 11-12

Jesus said to them, 'The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who exercise authority over them call themselves Benefactors. But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who rules like the one who serves. For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who is at the table? But I am among you as one who serves. twelve tribes of Israel.

Luke 22.25-27

Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave – just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

Matthew 20.25-27

You are those who have stood by me in my trials. And I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred one on me, so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Luke 22.28-30

'I am being poured out like a drink offering'.

Philippians 2.17
