“This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother from your heart.” (Mat.18.35).

“Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us”.
(Matthew 6.12).

“For if you forgive men when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men their sins, your father will not forgive your sins.” (Matthew 6.14 –15).

“You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” (Acts 1.8).

“Some of them... went to Antioch and began to speak to Greeks also, telling them the good news about the Lord Jesus. The Lord’s hand was with them, and a great number of people believed and turned to the Lord. News of this reached the ears of the church at Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. When he arrived and saw the evidence of the grace of God, he was glad and encouraged them to remain true to the Lord with all their hearts.”
(Acts 11.19-23).

“Paul and Barnabas spent considerable time there, speaking boldly for the Lord, who confirmed the message of his grace by enabling them to do miraculous signs and wonders.” (Acts 14.3).

“So that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God.”

“We try to persuade men. ... For Christ’s love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all ... and he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them, and was raised again.”
(2 Corinthians 5.11, 14-15).

“All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men’s sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ’s ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ’s behalf: be reconciled to God.”

(5.18-20).

“As God’s fellow-workers we urge you not to receive God’s grace in vain. For God says ‘in the time of my favour I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you’, which is a quotation from the prophet Isaiah, chapter 49 verse 8. Paul goes on “I tell you, now is the time of God’s favour, now is the day of salvation.”(2 Cor. 6.1-2).

“I consider my life worth nothing to me, if only I may finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me – the task of testifying to the gospel of God’s grace.” (Acts 20. 24).

“Now I commit you to God and the word of his grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance” (21. 32).
