

January, February 2025 Paper Making and Book Binding

Tricia and Dionne upcycling old paper

We connect with each other and have fun.

Jude making new paper and Natalie with her newly bound book.

We all need “Me Time”

Alan R with newly made sheets of paper.

As an engineer, Alan found the process of bookbinding
interesting.

Ruth placing the paper into the cover, ready for sewing.

Our group members support each other with both learning and life.

Lizzy and Ruth
bookbinding.

There's always a giggle
with Ruth around. xx

With the support
of All Saints,
Art Workshop
offers affordable,
accessible,
and supportive
artmaking.
Thank you.
