Palm Sunday

It was the last visit Jesus would make to Jerusalem. He told two of his followers to go and pick up transport from Rent-a-Donkey. He asked them to get a young donkey that no one had ever ridden before. His followers went and found the donkey, just as Jesus had said, and they told the owners of the donkey that “The Lord needs it”.

Then his followers threw their cloaks over the donkey, Jesus got on and rode it into the city. His followers followed him.

When he got close to Jerusalem a big crowd began to gather. Some people cut down palm branches and threw them on the road in front of the donkey that Jesus was riding.

They took off their cloaks too and threw them on the road in front of the donkey. Then they started shouting,

‘Hosanna to the Son of David,
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.’

The donkey kept walking. Jesus kept riding. The crowds kept on shouting: 'Hosanna!' and praising God for all the miracles they had seen.

And so, Jesus came into Jerusalem riding on a donkey, followed by his followers,
and cheered on by the cheering crowds!
